

New “Row Me Home” reviews from Europe!

“Some of the best American musicians and the CD sounds that way. The songs are sublime, beautiful melodies that linger, sometimes intelligent and humorous songs sung by a man with a pleasant voice. Relaxed and easy to digest and so beautifully put together the CD sounds even better after a few plays!” Highly Recommended.

MOORS MAGAZINE, THE NETHERLANDS

“All compositions breathe in the warm breeze of a coast, which is a feast for the eye as far as the eye can see.”

ROCK TIME MAGAZINE, GERMANY

“The mix of folk, rock, country and jazz is nicely incorporated in the songs of Scott Kirby’s Row Me Home. In the coming decades he can continue to produce such records as there will always be an audience for this music at any time in history.”

ROOTSTIME MAGAZINE, THE NETHERLANDS

“In this fine piece of work, we hear the sophisticated pop of Steely Dan, but in a lighter version. Country, folk and jazz subtly embrace each other and contribute to a very relaxed atmosphere. A perfect antidote to these dark times.”

KEYS AND CHORDS MAGAZINE, BELGIUM

“It’s always fun to see great musicians on an album. Scott Kirby has really managed to get a whole bunch on his. Leland Sklar, Russ Kunkel, Dean Parks, Jay Oliver and Peter Mayer, just to name a few. Russ Kunkel produced the CD so we’re talking about real quality here. Well produced and sometimes soft-pop like Blow Me Down To Cayo Hueso, sometimes Bruce Hornsby sounding like in Port Outbound Starboard Home, and sometimes laid back singer/songwriter with a touch of jazz.”
