

What the reviews say:

“Scott Kirby’s songs have graced Radio Margaritaville since we began in 1999. He is a favorite of our listeners, always near the top of the list of our most-requested artists. Recent material like “Lucky Enough” and “4 Good Dogs” show that Scott just keeps getting better. And he remains one of the most sought-after performers at the various shows and gatherings of Parrotheads that our listeners attend so enthusiastically.”

Steve Huntington, Program Director
Sirius XM Radio Margaritaville

“Many of this Beach Folkie’s tunes deal with the lifestyle “Money Magazine” purports one can have with wise investing ... his tunes are mellow and relaxing ... the only attitude found here is the manana one ... Kirby epitomizes the Key’s tranquility...”

Dirty Linen Magazine

“There’s a warm intimate sound that will tug on your heartstrings. The songs are fantastic and the musicianship superb. Good show!”

Key West The Newspaper

“Kirby’s a storyteller, sometimes sentimental, sometimes hilarious, but all with insight, depth and wisdom ... you can’t help but like this guy’s music.”

The Musicians Trade Journal

“His writing can be engagingly literate to elegantly simple ... the whole place was laughing and singing along to his sometimes outrageous lyrics.”

Frank Quatrone, Ticket

“Once in a very great while you come across a performer who is a true artist. Scott is a master of the 6 string guitar and a superb vocalist with a touch of Don McLean and an emotionally addictive interpretation. But Kirby has far more to offer. This is a real songwriter we have here!”

Key West The Newspaper

“The proof of his commitment to songwriting can be found on his CDs... a smooth melding of humor and gravitas – are what you might expect from a guy who pulled off a remarkable parlay when he enjoyed a simultaneous reign as class clown and class president ...”
